Rules

Firms originating from all countries of the world are eligible to tender for works, goods and services contracts. The rules are in conformity with the provisions of the Laws of Serbia, in particular the Law on Public Procurement, Official Gazette of RS, No. 91/2019, the European Investment Bank (EIB) Guide to Procurement, which can be downloaded from: https://www.eib.org/attachments/strategies/guide_to_procurement_en.pdf, the EIB's Anti-Fraud Policy which can be downloaded from: <http://www.eib.org/infocentre/publications/all/anti-fraud-policy.htm>; the EIB's Exclusion Policy document of 21 February 2018, which can be downloaded from: <http://www.eib.org/infocentre/publications/all/exclusion-policy.htm>, The Practical Guide for EU External Actions- A Practical Guide-August 2021, (the PRAG), (2 envelope tender submission) which is applicable to this call (available at: <http://ec.europa.eu/europeaid/prag/>)

Pursuant to its Sanctions Policy, the EIB shall not provide finance, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of an individual or entity that is subject to financial sanctions imposed by the EU, either autonomously or pursuant to the financial sanctions decided by the UN Security Council on the basis of article 41 of the UN Charter.

The EIB also requires that candidates, tenderers, (sub-) contractors participating in a tender procedure or a contract under an EIB financed project shall not violate or have violated any intellectual property rights.

Grounds for exclusion

As part of the application form, candidates must submit a signed declaration, included in the standard application form, to the effect that they are not in any of the exclusion situations listed in Section 2.6.10.1. of the PRAG, Version December 2021.

In addition, as a part of their applications, candidates must submit a signed declaration, to the effect that they are not in any of the exclusions situations listed in the Guide to Procurement for projects financed by the European Investment Bank, September 2018 (https://www.eib.org/attachments/strategies/guide_to_procurement_en.pdf), Section 1.4 (Ethical Conduct), Section 1.5 (Conflict of Interest), Section 1.7 (mandatory compliance with EIB's environmental and social safeguards), and that they comply with Anti-fraud policy of the European Investment Bank (<http://www.eib.org/infocentre/publications/all/anti-fraud-policy.htm>). Such declaration is to be signed by Consortium and each Consortium member (including Consortium leader). Candidates will submit as a part of their applications, signed Covenant of Integrity – template available in EIB Guide to Procurement, Annex 3), and Environmental and Social Covenant (E&S Covenant template is available in EIB Guide to Procurement, Annex 7). It should be noted that, in the Covenant of Integrity, the tenderer is requested to self-declare all sanctions and/or exclusions (including any similar decisions having the effect of imposing conditions on the tenderer or its subsidiaries or to exclude the said tenderer or its subsidiaries, such as temporary suspension, conditional non-exclusion, etc.) imposed by the European institutions or any multilateral development banks (including the World Bank Group, the African Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, European Investment Bank or Inter-American Development Bank), regardless of the date of issue and the expiration or not of such decisions and of the current status of any sanction and/or exclusion. In this regard, any omission or misrepresentation, made knowingly or recklessly, may be considered as fraud under the EIB Anti-Fraud Policy. Therefore, the Client reserves the right to reject any offer presenting an inaccurate or incomplete Covenant of Integrity, and may cause the rejection of the offer for prohibited conduct. Covenant of Integrity and Environmental and Social Covenant are to be signed by Consortium and each Consortium member (including Consortium leader).
